He is survived by his loving wife of 47 years, Maree Fann Webster, and sons: Rev. Brent (Katie) Webster of Oakland, CA and Park (Briana) Webster of Greenville, SC. Also, surviving is his twin sister, Laura Brown (Grady) of Bishopville, SC. He was the beloved grandfather of William, Lucy, Rosie, Parker, and Grace.

Dr. Webster loved his South Carolina roots and was a proud graduate of The Citadel. He served faithfully with the Greenville Hospital System for 30 years. During that time, he became Chairman of the South Carolina Governor's Council on Physical Fitness and a Fellow of the American College of Sports Medicine. Above all his many prestigious accomplishments, his greatest love was his patients.

In retirement, Dr. Webster continued his passion for running and spending time with his beloved wife and grandchildren. He maintained a connection with The Citadel and visited as often as possible. Dr. Webster was a strong Christian, loving husband, a tremendous father, and grandfather, and a dedicated educator whose enthusiasm for health touched so many lives.
