“ We were heartbroken and loss for words when We heard of your passing . Shocked and in disbelief in why you had to be taken so early. And as we said our last goodbyes to you that day lying there we noticed a smile that only April had on your face,gave us a little comfort and joy. Because right there and then we knew That you had crossed through the gates of heaven and touched the face God and you were at peace and will be waiting for us to see each other again someday. We love you sis
