She enjoyed staying busy and working hard no matter what needed to be done. There were many projects she helped complete around the house with her husband and son. She enjoyed spending time with family and friends. Other things she enjoyed was keeping her yards looking beautiful, growing a vegetable garden, refurbishing furniture, shopping, family vacations at the beach, Christmas season and all of decorating that goes along with it.

Carolyn was a member of Hebron United Methodist Church, Bishopville, where she attended regularly until her health started failing.

Carolyn was predeceased by her husband, Cecil E. Clanton of 57 years, her parents, Clifford Edward Woodham and Annie Laurie Beasley Woodham, as well as her late husband's parents, Raeford Lee Clanton and Fannie Lee Clanton. The family would like to thank her loving caregivers, Christine Dotts, Teresa White, Rosa Richardson, Annie Bell Simon, Lakisha Brown, and their families for their kindness, tender care, and support all these years.
