Mr. Floyd was born in Florence, SC, a son of the late Lawrence Preston and Isma McElveen Floyd. On November 9th, 2016, Larry Floyd went peacefully to be with his Master. He was a proud Mason and the legacy he left behind won't soon be forgotten. He taught us the important things in life like being in church every time the doors were open, making sure to arrive early enough to even make coffee with a mint to follow. He taught us to never wear orange and to love our Gamecocks, win or lose. His love of playing cards, fishing, and Fords was also instilled upon us. He taught us that we should read our Bible daily and always stand with the Republican Party. He believed one could never have enough hats, ink pens, or watches. Most of all, he taught his family to love God, serve people and never sit still. He will be missed greatly but is walking the Streets Of Gold with his Savior.

He is survived by his loving wife, Voncile Denton Floyd of Bishopville, SC; sons, Larry Floyd, Jr. of Camden, SC, Chad (Angie) Floyd of Camden, SC; daughters, Denise (Rick) Dunlap of Camden, SC, Babs (Rick) Chewning Bishopville, SC, Debbie (Glenn) Bramlett of Hopkins, SC; brothers, Kent (Audrey) Floyd of Laurinburg, NC; sisters, Mary Morris of Savannah, GA; grandchildren, Brock (Jill) Lundy of Elgin, SC, Brittany (Josh) Blythe Bishopville, SC, Brooke (Josh) Bradshaw of Bishopville, SC; Gavin Floyd of Camden, SC, Doug (Stephanie) Bramlett Hopkins, SC, Chrissy (Morgan) Wofford of Hopkins, SC; 10 great-grandchildren.
