

Mrs. Emma Kinlaw DuBose

April 18, 1931 - May 30, 2020

Emma K. DuBose, 89, wife of the late V. Fred DuBose died on May 29, 2020. Born in Lee County, SC, she was the daughter of Marie Kinlaw Logan. She is survived by a son, Freddie DuBose, (Deborah); grandchildren, Andrew Troublefield (Dawn), Mark Troublefield (Kristin); great-grandchildren, Gracie and Julia Troublefield; sisters, Lois Hayes, Shelby Jean Christmas, Alice Owens, and Joyce Christmas (Bill). She is also survived by many loving nieces, nephews, and extended family, as well as special friends and farm associates Leyland Carroway, and Donnie Branham. She is predeceased by a son, David DuBose, a sister, Elizabeth Walters, and a niece Pam Hayes.

Mrs. DuBose graduated from Tuomey Hospital Nursing School as a registered nurse. She worked at Lee County Memorial Hospital for approximately 50 years serving part of that as Director of Nursing She also worked for the Lee County Health Department, as well as in the medical practices of Dr. Herman Denny, Dr. Leroy Dennis, Dr. John Pate, and Dr. Edgar Deschamps, III. She embraced nursing with dedication and compassion that will long be remembered by many of those she worked to heal. She balanced her nursing career as a perfect wife, mother and a very important part of The DuBose Family Farm.

In addition to her legendary fruitcakes, pecan pies, pound, caramel, pineapple and coconut cakes she loved to share, we believed it was her wish to be remembered for her love of the entire DuBose family, her exceptional nursing skill, and her dedication as a mother, wife, grandmother, and sister. We believe she achieved this legacy through the love she had for her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, and her wisdom and service to Him. We are forever changed for having had her in our lives on this earth.

Visitation will be held on June 6, 2020, from 2:00 until 3:00 pm at Newman Swamp Southern Methodist Church located at 1037 Lee State Park Road, Lamar. “ I am saddened to learn of your loss. I started dropping in on Aunt Emma a few years ago. Even though she hadn't seen me in decades she welcomed me with opened arms. She was a beautiful soul and a link to my beloved Granny that I will always cherish. God bless you all.

“ There are not enough words to express my thoughts about the woman, Emma DuBose. She was kind, loving, humble, generous. All these things and then some. She leaves behind an incredible legacy. Freddie, you and David were blessed to call her “mom”. I was blessed to have known her all of my life and to call her friend. My mother loved her deeply. I know the reunion in heaven yesterday was amazing. First she saw her Savior and Lord Jesus Christ and then David, Mr. Fred and such a host of family and friends. We hurt because we have lost such a hero. She has won because she is finally home. We have hope though because for those of us who are Christians we will see and spend eternity with her. Until then Mrs.. Emma, we love you and we thank you for a life well lived.
