Frank had a heart as big as the highest mountain! He would help anyone, and always trying to make someone else's day better... He was a giver, not a taker!!! A rare gem in this world of deceit.. Rip, Frank.. Much love to all the family!

“ To the Mitchell Family:

I am Kitty, Frank Keas cousin, and I heard so many wonderful things about Mr. Frank from Frank Kea. He loved going to the Friday night get-togethers every week and always told me about the singing and playing. Now they are both in heaven and I wish to express to you how much he meant to our family. He was such a talented man and loved by so many. May you find comfort and peace in the days ahead as you go through this terrible time of loss. I lost my youngest son in August and I can tell you grief is so hard to bear but with family and friends to comfort you it does get you through the bad, sad days. Know that others share in your grief and sorrow and pray for you to be at peace with your many memories that no one can ever take away from you. God Bless.

“ My memories of Frank are of a man who loved life, family and friends to the extreme. He gave of himself and his talents freely and joyfully. He was loved by more people than most even knew and will be missed by every single person that knew him, but most by his family as they meant everything to him. Prayers to that lovely family.
