“ Allan and Steven, sorry for your loss. Had some great times growing up in your home. Your mom and dad always treated me as one of there children. Your mom will always be known to me as, 2 momma. You both have my deepest sympathy.

“ Helen was such a fine lady and good friend while I was at Bishopville. She took care of our little girl while Lonya was delivering our son, Eddie, at the Hartsville hospital. I could not have undertaken my first pastorate without her wise counsel.. I know there is rejoicing in heaven with her arrival.

The price of love is Grief. We who knew her and her family have faith our Grief will pass.
