“ Len was a cool cousin to hang with. Whether it was going to the river to swim and swing on the rope or driving out to a haunted house in the middle of the night, we had some fun times. I learned how to drive a stick shift in the green Z car he had years ago when I was a teenager. Ande and I would stay at his place sometimes when we would visit with Granny. He would wake us up playing Tom Petty real loud in the morning. We were always cuttin up while eating Granny chicken. Will miss you Cuz!!

“ Len was a special kind of guy. We were close friends at one time. But I got married and we just lost touch. Len was very entertaining and so much fun to hang out with. He and my older brother David Chandler were also close friends during high school. David passed at the age of 45. That graduating class of '77 has lost way too many too young. RIP my old friend.
