“ Sissy, you will be incredibly missed by so many hearts you have touched. You were a true person that always wore the best smile. I remember coming to have my hair done years ago, and it was an early morning appt that I was running behind on so I didn't put makeup on. When I got there, you looked at me and said, girl don't come in here without your makeup on, you'll scare all the customers away. We laughed and laughed over that. You had a special soul and I know you are no longer suffering and watching down on Brian, the boys, your family and friends. I love you girl.
