“ I am sure my fondest memory of my mother-in-law would have to be when she went with me to child birth classes at Shaw for her first grandchild. When we left the meeting in which they showed a movie of an actual child being born we started home and we were both so tense and a little shy she looked at me and said "I can't believe I had four babies and never knew anything." She will forever be my mother-in-law ! judy
