“ My aunt Nina Lee was the sister of my mother, Frances. I spent my summers at her house while growing up. Some of my fondest childhood memories are eating frying pan cornbread and fatback bacon in her kitchen and watching her work in the yard with her huge straw hat on and wearing a man's long sleeve cotton shirt. Even though aunt Nina Lee suffered many losses she always felt grateful for her life and her faith always remained strong!! For those of us who were privileged to know and love her our loss is immense. But the impact she made on our lives is much greater and everlasting. God bless you and thank you. Love, Belinda
