“ Phil was such a great guy. Goofy but great! Always willing to help anyone at any time. We worked together for 10+ years at the Robinson Nuclear Plant and every day we worked together we laughed. He had a kind and giving heart with a beautiful soul. Keep smiling down on us Phil. Know that you are loved.

“ I worked with Phil many years ago at the Robinson Plant. Phil helped us all enjoy our work days more. His sense of fairness, inclusion , work ethic and humor always brought joy and somehow made work not seem like work at all.

“ To Danielle and the family, please accept our deepest condolences of Phil, especially Danielle who he loved so much. Phil had a heart of gold and he was a great guy. He was the best! He always stayed upbeat even after all his health problems. I met Phil because Kevin worked with him through the years. Danielle it will take time for you but look for signs he's with you. As a memory for YOU, I wanted to share something amusing and funny about him. Although we never met, I thought you would like this. It was Christmas many years ago. I think you were 4 or 5 years old, we got a Christmas card from Phil and I said to Kevin "that's so sweet, he let Danielle write the card". Then Kevin told me that was Phil's handwriting, not yours. He had the craziest penmanship, but I loved it. That was the first thing. Second, later Phil invited us to his house, aka "The Zoo", and his big dog came out to greet me. I asked Phil is he friendly and he said yes, so he greeted me by standing on his hind legs and his front legs were on my chest, it was so funny. We went to see all the snakes, wow that was amazing because I love snakes. Next we were in the den watching TV, and I got up to go to the kitchen not knowing of the 'other' creature there. Well it took off after me and I ran and screamed slightly. Phil and Kevin were laughing because it was his iguana. Phil caught it and held it until I sat back down, that thing was really big in my opinion. "The Zoo" was really fun! Phil was a great guy and he will be sadly missed. Kevin talked to him recently and it was a good call. He was talking about taking his dog to nursing homes and going to schools to share his animals with the kids. What a stand up and positive man, always remember that. Those were some awesome memories we had of him and he will be remembered in our hearts forever. We wanted to visit him but my health is too bad and we couldn't because of Covid. His passing is heartbreaking but remember all the good times and memories you had. Hold that close to your heart and with the strength of family and friends you will get through this difficult time. God Bless and Keep the Faith.

Love Always and Strength of Heart,
Wyndee and Kevin Brown

“ Phillip Blake was a childhood playmate and good buddy. Many years when I traveled from Virginia to Bishopville to celebrate Christmas with my parents, I would let him know that I was in town. He would come around the block, with his dog of course, and spend a couple of hours with us. We always enjoyed catching up on our lives and loving on his doggies. He adored his daughter and his animals! RIP, dear friend, and fellow animal lover. God bless you, Danielle. - Peace, Gayle Baker

“ Oh brother how I will miss you. One of my very best friends. Affectionately know as "Golden" in the first years we met Phil back in the gym in the mid 80s. Before we actually met, me and David Byrd nicknamed him for all the Gold's Gym workout shirts he wore. We three worked out for years together and became and remained the best of friends. Friday night shoulders and arms then to the Western Sizzlin for steak and loaded baked potatoes - then we would drive poor Phil crazy circling down broad street round and round until he threatened us to take him back to his car. :) Always there for me over the years - even protected me a time or two (you remember) - just like a big brother would do... You impacted and made my life so much better by being part of it!

He loves you more than anything Danielle and so proud of you! You had a wonderful amazing Dad!!!

What a reunion with Mom and Beth in heaven yesterday morning. Mercy did he love and pick on Ms Sarah. How excited she had to be to see her little Philip Blake!!! I love you my brother - how my heart breaks - miss you! One day we will be reunited!!!
