

Mr. Randall Nathan Gooding

October 8, 1944 - June 27, 2022

It is with deep sorrow that Mrs. Monty Parnell Gooding announces the death of her beloved husband, Randall Nathan Gooding, 77.

Mr. Gooding entered into rest on Monday, June 27, 2022. The Directors of Hancock-Elmore-Hill Funeral Home are caring for the family.

A memorial service with Military Honors will be held at 11:00 am on Friday, July 1, 2022, in The Chapel of Hancock-Elmore-Hill Funeral Home. The Rev. Paul Atkinson will officiate the service to celebrate his life, and the family will receive friends following the service.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made in his honor to the Lee County Veterans Museum, 121 W. Cedar Lane, Bishopville, SC 29010, or the SC Cotton Museum, 121 W. Cedar Lane, Bishopville, SC 29010.

He was a member of Memorial Chapel and retired from National Can after thirty-one years of faithful service. He loved his wife of sixty years with all of his heart, as well as his three sons, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, the rest of his family, friends, and animals, especially Nuttie Buddy. He was an avid traveler, fisherman, racecar driver, and alpaca farmer. He loved tinkering in his garage and creating beautiful artwork out of metal. You can see his artwork throughout Bishopville, the town he adored.

One of Randall's greatest passions was this country, and he served it in Vietnam as a United States Marine during the early years of his life. He also served in the Marine Corps Reserve. As he grew older, he became a member of the American Legion Post 29 - VFW Post 3096. He spent every day at the Veterans Museum or the Cotton Museum -- especially at 4 o'clock.

He is survived by his loving wife, Monty Parnell Gooding of Bishopville, SC; sons, Michael Randall (Rhonda) Gooding of Bishopville, SC, Charles Nathan (Donna) Gooding of Bishopville, SC, and Anthony Gooding of Raliegh, NC; sister, Susan Bunch of Jacksonville, FL; grandchildren, Blake Gooding, Jordan Gooding, Justin Gooding, Kristel Croyle, Zach Gooding, Stan Burks, and Cory Burks; twelve great-grandchildren.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his brother, Robert Beard of Jacksonville, FL; sister, Carolyn Williams of Jacksonville, FL.

Further announcements will be made in due course.

“ How do you say farewell to a friend of 62 years? He was more than a friend, or an acquaintance, he was a true brother. He was a Marine, like me and so many others who became close friends and who shared our encounter with life. He made me a part of his life and part of his family. We shared 62 years of ups and downs. So many memories. So many thoughts. He is forever in my heart and mind.

“ Dear Family, we were so saddened to learn of Randall's passing. Please know that you all are in our prayers and thoughts. Randall was a credit to his country and to his community after his active Military service, he was loved by all who knew him, and his life made an impact on everyone around him. Thank you for sharing him with us these many years and now may he rest in the sweet peace he deserves and may you as family be comforted in knowing that we shall see him again in a land where no more wars nor pain nor sorrow will we ever have to face.
