

Mr. Raymond Henry Wilson

November 10, 1954 - April 30, 2026

It is with deep sorrow that the Wilson family announces the death of Mr. Raymond Henry Wilson, 71.

Mr. Wilson entered into rest on Thursday, April 30, 2026. The Directors of Hancock-Elmore-Hill Funeral Home are caring for the family.

A private family service will be held at the home, 741 Ammons Road, Sumter, S.C. 29153, from 11:00 am until 2:00 pm on Friday, May 8, 2026.

Raymond Henry Wilson was born on November 10, 1954, in Camden, SC, to the late James F. Wilson and the late Bonnie Reeves Wilson. He was the oldest son of six children.

Raymond's first love was being a witness for the Lord. He was a skilled carpenter and auto mechanic, known for his strong hands and even stronger work ethic. Whether he was building something from the ground up or fixing what others thought couldn't be repaired. He worked with integrity, doing things the right way. His craftsmanship and willingness to help others left a lasting mark on everyone he knew.

More than anything, Raymond loved the Lord, Jesus Christ, and then he loved and valued family and friends. He found great joy in time spent with those closest to him. He always showed up with steady support and a caring heart. He was the kind of man you could count on, dependable, hard-working, and devoted friend. He enjoyed playing the guitar and singing with his family. He was always excited to be near water, whether fishing, swimming, or just hanging out on the beach, and could often be found sitting on his porch soaking up the sun while enjoying life's quiet moments.

He is survived by his son, Jonathan D. Wilson; daughter, Jennifer W. (Rob) Studwell; brother, Paul Wilson; sisters, Linda (Vernon) Lever, Vicky (Clinton) Harper, Jamie (Dan) Golden; grandchildren, Joshua Tarte, R. Bryce Studwell, Rylee Studwell, Noah Wilson.

In addition to his parents, he is preceded in death by his sister, Sandra Myers.

“ On behalf of the Egan, Foxworth, and Lessard families, we want you to know how deeply loved and appreciated Raymond has been in our lives. He was such a blessing to Sheila and to all of us, and his presence brought a kind of warmth that made every gathering feel more meaningful.

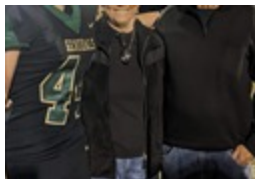

We will always cherish the memories, Christmas celebrations filled with joy, birthday dinners around the table, family events where laughter came easy, and those peaceful Sunday afternoons spent on Jim and Rhonda's porch. Those moments were special because of him.

Even Camo, Jim and Rhonda's dog, will miss him. Raymond took such good care of him, and that says so much about the kind of man he was, always gentle, attentive, and full of love in even the smallest, everyday moments.

Raymond was truly a godly man, steady in his faith and generous in his spirit. The impact he had on our family will never be forgotten, and his legacy will live on in the memories we hold so close.

He will be greatly missed and always remembered with love.

With heartfelt sympathy,
The Egan, Foxworth, and Lessard Families

Oh what a precious Jewel! He and his family recently allowed me to become his Chaplain. I must say the day I saw him my heart was ignited by His eagerness to pray and talk about Jesus. Rest well Mr. Raymond.

I pray for peace and strength for the family.
