“ Norm and I had lunch almost every Wednesday with the IPMS/Mid-Carolina Swamp Fox Modelers.

Although he was in tremendous pain, we never heard him complain, he always had very interesting stories of him growing up in Miami, FL.

He was a gentle giant that loved showing and modeling his tanks. Rest in Peace Bob, you are no longer in pain, but you truly will be missed.

“ Bob shared Wednesday lunch time with the IPMS guys and sat beside me during our club meetings many times. You knew Bob was in pain, but, he never complained. Always wanted to know how you were doing. Eager to display his work and his techniques. He taught me how to make snow for a diorama. A gentleman and a friend.

Walk with ease now, My Friend. You made the world a much better place. Thanks Bob.
