“Rose was my mom's cousin. I remember my mom talking about growing up with Rose and her being one of my mom's best friends. They lost contact for a while but found each other again. They would talk on the phone and mama would go to visit Rose.

When my mom passed away in 2019, Rose reached out to me. I could tell from the things she knew, my mom spoke often of me and my family. Rose and I wrote each other several times. She always asked about my son.

I know she was ill for some time. I know she is now fully healed and I am sure she and mama had a sweet reunion.

*Love and prayers to all the family.
