

Mr. Trey Beasley

December 10, 1975 - August 13, 2017

A memorial service for Clyde Napoleon "Trey" Beasley III, who passed away peacefully in his sleep on Sunday, August 13, 2017, at the tender age of 41, will be held at 3 o'clock on Sunday, August 20, 2017, at Bethany Baptist Church, 1146 Manville-St. Charles Road, Bishopville, SC, The Rev. Dr. Jim Chandler officiating. The family will receive friends from 2:30 until 3:00 in the church, prior to the service, and other times at his father's residence, 2514 Raccoon Road, Mayesville, SC. Hancock-Elmore-Hill Funeral Home is serving the family.

Trey was raised on Raccoon Road, in Lee County, SC. He was a unique person, an artist, had a superb sense of humor and was always empathetic. Trey was a world traveler. Throughout his life in the States and his travels abroad, he met many people and made friends instantly. He finally found his own personal paradise on this earth in Sweden, where he lived for the past five years and where he passed away. Trey was in a great place in his personal life in his latter years, and there is no doubt that he would want everyone to feel his love and appreciate his memory now that he has passed. Trey certainly made this world brighter, and this world has lost a special treasure now that he has gone to be with the Lord.

Trey was the son of Clyde Napoleon Beasley Jr. and the late Rachel Tidwell Beasley. Trey is survived by his father, of Bishopville, SC; sister, Kimberly

Beasley Anderson of Sumter, SC; two nieces and three nephews; two great nieces and one great nephew; numerous cousins; numerous aunts and uncles; his special partner in life who he loved and lived with in Sweden for the past five years, Johan Mauritzson. In addition to his mother, Trey was preceded in death by his sister, Janet Beasley Welch.

Trey was loved so incredibly much and will surely be missed.

“ Sitting at the back table in Mrs. McCutcheon's algebra class. Trey sat on the right side of me and Lee White set on the left side of me I considered it the best of both worlds. I can only remember that one shirt that he wore the tie died one. For me what made Trey so special was the way he loved and excepted every one just as they were.

“ A memory I would like to share is the way Trey and I met---one of the six degrees of separation that are so rampant. I wished a friend Happy Birthday on August 14, several years ago. Looking at other posts, I saw a person who lived in the same vicinity of Sweden where my grandparents were from--but Trey didn't sound like a Swedish name. I just had to write and introduce myself and find out more about him! I remember that the reason he said he was there was because of a love story--and he told me the story of Johan and him--and it was beautiful. We ended up becoming friends and though we never met in person we had lots of conversations and he became someone I loved. I enjoyed his posts about his travels in the area, especially to Kalmar (my favorite place in Sweden when I was there in 1980). I always wished I could have gone to visit him cuz somehow I knew I would be welcome. Again on August 14 this year, I posted on the same person's page, voicing my appreciation for the friend and that I was grateful he was instrumental in my meeting Trey and Johan. Because I tagged them, this ended up being the last post on Trey's page before Johan posted he has passed. Devastated at his passing--while happy for him, sad for all the people who loved him so much--especially Johan. Prayers that God holds you tightly, Johan, and that God's love and peace will sustain you every moment.

“ I am so sorry to hear about Trey. He was a fixture at our house when he & Hope were growing up. From kindergarten to graduation their lives were intertwined. My family has known your family for so many years & when our friends feel pain, we feel pain. Altho, I have no idea what you must be going thru losing your child, my heart aches for your loss & for the loss of this young man. Please know my thoughts & prayers are with you & yours. May God bring you peace & comfort.

“ This was the last time I saw Trey, my brother and friend. He and Johan visited me and Santi in Miami. We had such a good time catching up. I'll miss his love and silliness.

We went to Lollapalooza one year. I think it was 2015. Cam was with us and our friend Allison. On the way home we stopped at a rest stop and Trey started talking to a truck driver there. The man asked what I do and Trey told him I built bird houses! Lol! It always makes me laugh so hard to think of that day. It was so much fun. Wish we could have one more road trip. At least I'll always have it in my heart and mind.
