Mrs. Little was born on Monday, May 20, 1940, in Lee County, SC. She is the daughter of the late Coley Lewis Stokes and the late Olivia Smith Stokes. Virginia spent many years being a pianist for Red Hill Baptist Church in Rembert, SC. She retired from the Department of Health and Environmental Control. After retirement, she worked in the Probate Office at the Lee County

Courthouse.

Virginia was known for her famous homemade cakes, Mac and Cheese, and her incredible sense of humor. She was smiling and singing until the end. Her greatest joy was serving the Lord in song, spending time with her family, friends, and dogs, and having her daily ice cream.

Virginia was preceded in death by her parents, her sister, Viva Davis, and her brother, Lewis Stokes.

She leaves behind her daughter, Robyn Beasley; her brother, Dean Stokes (Terri); and bonus children, Alison Weeks, Kristal Leaird, Bobby Little, Jr., Gary Little, and Skyler Hall. She also leaves behind beloved nieces and nephews, bonus grandchildren, and another one on the way.

The family would like to thank Elaine Jeko and the caretakers of The Terrace. Also, special thanks to the wonderful nurses at McLeod Hospital who cared for Virginia in her final days.
