“ Paps, I miss you more than words can explain... it's so hard for me to believe that this is real. I keep waiting for my phone to ring and you being on the other end saying “good morning hun” like you did every single morning. There's so much I'm going to miss like your smile, you had a smile that was bright enough to light up a whole room and a heart just as big. The number 1 thing you taught me over the years is unconditional love and that family is always first. I really admire you paps. You were always strong and did whatever you had to to make sure we were taken care of and had whatever we needed. Even though you weren't my dad by blood you are and always will be my dad. You always treated me like I was your daughter and I thank you and love you for that. I really want you to know how lucky and blessed I am to have you as my kids' papal and thank you for teaching, caring, and loving us so much. I love you paps and I'll miss yo every single day. You are truly missed and will never be forgotten. You live on in our memories, thoughts, and hearts. I know you're looking down smiling and would be so proud of Will and our family. Rest in heaven. I love you.

“ We all miss you so much papal, I can't even count how many things you did for us or things you did to help us out. You were like a dad to me, I can't even remember one time you doubted me or this family you are the best person, family, and friend that you could ever have. All the little moments this family shared with you were the best, every time you came home from driving the truck you always made sure I washed little man cuz you knew me and him had that special bond out of everybody threw out the house. But trust me papal I won't disappoint you I'll work on my grades and try my best in school and watch little man for you. I love you papal.

“ Bill and I spent a lot of time with each other as kids growing up. Great days spent on the beach, surfing up and down the coast, working together at Red & White, going to school, becoming who we are and what we are as old guys now. I know he will be missed by everyone that knew him. There is a great emptiness in the hearts and lives of all that knew him and especially Will, Adam and his grandchildren. Keep him in your hearts and remember that he lived and breathed just for y'all. That is what he would like to be remembered for.

“ Bill has been with me since I started at JCT 5 years ago. I cant tell you how many personal conversations we have shared during and after hours. I do know one thing is that all he ever talked about was his Son William and how much he wanted for his son to succeed in life. The other thing he talked about was his little grandchildren. He loved them very much and tried to get them anything they needed while he was on the road. Bill was a great driver and friend and was always up for anything that we threw at him while at work. He always looked at the better side of things while on the road and never complained. I will miss him very much.
